

- April 17, 1987: REACH performs its first flight from Ukiah Valley Medical Center to Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital
- January 1990: Airplane services added
- January 1993: REACH becomes preferred provider for Children's Hospital of Oakland

- October 1995: 5,000 flight milestone
- October 1996: REACH 24-Hour Communications Center established
- March 1998: REACH receives CAMTS accreditation

- November 2000: Hospital IFR - GPS routing approved by FAA
- February 2004: REACH begins use of night vision goggles
- August 2005: REACH for Life Membership program launches

- December 2006: 30,000 flight milestone
- April 17, 2007: REACH marks 20 years of service - We thank each and every one of our colleagues, friends and business partners for your support

